

Please do not allow the Banking Industry to circumnavigate and thus weaken the Indiana No-Call list. In this day and age privacy is difficult enough to come by, we do not need to have repeated phone calls during the evening. If you decide against Indiana law, at least restrict the phone calls to certain hours such as 10am to 2 pm to avoid repeatedly invading our homes in the evening.

Thank you,
Bill English